

I enjoy listening to KLOVE on the current FM translator. It is a great station that serves me even as I travel through the country. It would be discouraging if KLOVE were taken off the air. Our local Christian community would no longer have a station on the air that is all Christian music, all the time.